

Dear member of the AIM@SHAPE Network Industrial Group, we would like to invite you to the final AIM@SHAPE NIG meeting, held on: Friday Nov. 16, 2007 at: Fraunhofer Institute for Computer Graphics Research in Darmstadt, Germany

from 11 h to 15 h

We will present the latest achievements of the AIM@SHAPE project in the areas of:

- shape acquisition
- shape representaiton
- shape fitting
- shape processing
- shape retrieval
- shape ontologies

with applications in

- product design,
- manufacturing industry,
- cultural heritage,
- medicine and
- other fields

The meeting will be accompanied by a Brunch Buffet. Please register by just sending an email to: Andre.Stork@igd.fraunhofer.de

We are looking forward to welcome you in Darmstadt and celebrate the final NIG meeting. In case of questions do not hesitate to ask - we can also help with your travel arrangement (general information can be found under: www.igd.fraunhofer.de).

For more information on the AIM@SHAPE project please see: www.aimatshape.net or have a look at several interesting videos on our ftp-server: <ftp://ftp.igd.fhg.de/outgoing/A2/Aimatshape>.

Sincerely,

Andre Stork